The first system of music consists of a vocal line in the upper staff and a piano accompaniment in the lower staff. The vocal line begins with a long note, followed by a series of eighth notes. The piano accompaniment provides a steady harmonic support with chords and moving lines in both hands.

e - vig tid rit.

The second system continues the musical piece. The vocal line has a long note followed by a rest, then a few notes. The piano accompaniment includes a section marked 'rit.' (ritardando), where the tempo slows down, indicated by a hairpin and a long horizontal line. The system concludes with a double bar line.
